

2009-2010 Season
Our Twenty-eighth

October 11, 2009
7:30 PM

The Brass Roots Trio returns. Imagine hearing award winning trumpet, horn and piano players plus the addition of a brilliant operatic tenor. This program includes the Beethoven Horn Sonata played on the natural horn. Displaying incomparable virtuosity with its original blend of masterpieces, operatic selections and jazz numbers, the trio has performed across the country and around the world. Their combination of technique, finesse and charisma are rarely seen on the classical stage, and they are known for establishing a wonderful rapport with their audience.

October 30, 2009

The trio, one of only six ever to win the prestigious Chamber Music America Residency Award have played for us twice in the past and we are thrilled to have them return.

November 15, 2009
3:00 PM

The West Virginia University Piano Quartet, featuring some of the finest musicians in our area playing violin, viola, cello and piano will present a program of some of the best known and loved chamber music written during the past two centuries.

February 22, 2010
3:00 PM

In one of our most innovative programs keyboardist and actor Geoffrey Thomas will appear in costume to narrate and perform some of the music of Joseph Haydn. Thomas, creator of the "Theater of Music", has performed throughout Europe and the USA, has recorded more than ten CDs and has appeared in several films, including Steven Speilberg's "Munich".

April 18, 2010
7:30 PM

More innovation. The final program of our twenty-eighth season will feature our first ever flute, clarinet and piano trio ETA 3. Not only are they one of the newest and most exciting chamber groups coming out of New York City, the trio's flutist who also plays with the Chamber Orchestra of New York and regularly appears in ABC's daytime soap opera "All My Children".

Please join us for our exciting new season by contacting us at the above addresses. Individual tickets are available for all of our concerts but our subscription rate provides great savings. Our concerts are held at St. Peter the Fisherman Church, Jackson Street in Fairmont. St. Peter's is accessible to persons with disabilities and our society is committed to provide auxiliary aids and services.

This program is presented with financial assistance from the West Virginia Division of Culture and History, and the National Endowment for the Arts, with approval from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts.
