

2014-2015 Season
Our Thirty-third

September 28, 2014
7:30 PM

We open our new season with the WVU Piano Quartet, the fine faculty quartet (violin, viola, cello and piano) that includes musicians who have performed nationally and internationally as soloists, chamber musicians and orchestral players. The quartet performs some of the truly significant literature of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. As award winning musicians they have been praised individually and as an ensemble. This is their second appearance on our series.

The Zodiak Trio formed in 2006 at the Manhattan School of Music. Currently, the Trio (clarinet, violin and piano) enjoys an international concert schedule that spans three continents, has been broadcast by France 3 Television, Beijing's CCTV News, Canada's CBC Radio and Television, NBC, New York's WXQR and WNYC, featured live on WGBH's "Live from Frasier" in Boston, and has recorded multiple times for Radio France in Paris.

April 19, 2015
7:30 PM

The Mana Saxophone Quartet presents fresh 21st-century repertoire and 20th-century masterworks on vintage instruments built to the 19th-century specifications of the saxophone's inventor, Adolphe Sax. In 2009, the group became the first saxophone quartet in history to receive the coveted Grand Prize at the Coleman International Chamber Ensemble Competition.

Our new season combines the traditional (piano quartet) with the absolutely new (saxophone quartet). Please join our exciting new season by contacting us at the above addresses. Individual tickets are available for all of our concerts but our subscription rate provides great savings. Our concerts are held at St. Peter the Fisherman Church, Jackson Street in Fairmont. St. Peter's is accessible to persons with disabilities and our society is committed to provide auxiliary aids and services.

This program is presented with financial assistance from the West Virginia Division of Culture and History, and the National Endowment for the Arts, with approval from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts.
