Our new season opens with a truly unique experience.

John Bullard and Friends features classical banjoist John Bullard appearing with violin, cello and piano in a program guaranteed to delight anyone who once considered the banjo only a simple folk instrument. John performs the music of Handel, Alessandro Marcello, Schuman and Telemann as well as original compositions and newly commissioned works, playing several banjos including his cello banjo. This is a program not to be missed.

The Aeolian Winds of Pittsburgh is a quintet consisting of some of the fine young wind players in the Pittsburgh area. Dedicated to wind chamber music performance, composition, and promotion, the Aeolian Winds of Pittsburgh was founded in September 2003. They are particularly dedicated to performing, featuring, and commissioning works by American composers as well as the standard repertoire for this well loved ensemble.

For the first time in many years we welcome a string quartet to our series. The Aeolus Quartet originally served as Graduate Resident String Quartet at the Juilliard School. Their recent season included residencies at Lehigh University, the Chamber Music Series of Detroit, and the Lincoln Center Atrium Series. The Baltimore Sun said they "...combined smoothly meshed technique with a sense of spontaneity and discovery". We are pleased to welcome them to our series.

Please visit our web site to see links to all of our artists and join our exciting new season by contacting us at the above addresses. Individual tickets are available for all our concerts but our subscription rate provides great savings. Our concerts are held at St. Peter the Fisherman Church, Jackson Street in Fairmont. St. Peter's is accessible to persons with disabilities and our society is committed to providing auxiliary aids and services.

This program is presented with financial assistance from the WV Department of Arts, Culture and History, and the National Endowment for the Arts, with approval from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts.
